Terms and conditions

All provisional bookings will be held for a maximum of two weeks, after which a deposit of €1,000 is required to secure your booking. If confirmation is not received, the date will be automatically released.

Payment of the first deposit indicates acceptance and understanding of all terms and conditions. Cash, card, or EMT payments only are acceptable; the hotel cannot accept cheque payments of any kind.

The hotel reserves the right to refund a deposit in circumstances where a booking is made through a third party or under false pretences, or if it decides not to accept a booking within two weeks of receipt, without being obliged to give any reason.

Prospective clients must meet with a member of the wedding team by appointment prior to acceptance of the first deposit. Further instalments will be required in the lead-up to your wedding day as per the payment schedule detailed in your contract. If the payment schedule is not met, the hotel reserves the right to cancel the wedding.

Deposits and instalments are not refundable or transferable in the event of cancellation. Cancellation charges, in addition to the forfeiture of the deposit paid, will be charged in full if the wedding is cancelled within 12 weeks of the booked date. Cancellation charges will include all items booked.

The client must inform the hotel not less than four weeks prior to the wedding of the anticipated number of guests attending. This is the number of people that will be charged for, provided it does not fall below the minimum number of guests required.

A variation of 10% on this number will be allowed (again, provided this number does not fall below the minimum) if the hotel is notified at least 72 hours in advance.

Menu prices may vary subject to seasonal availability of certain products and changes to government taxes.

The hotel will not accept any responsibility for any entertainment that has not been booked directly with the hotel. However, all entertainment arrangements must have the approval of Hotel Management prior to the date of the function. All entertainment providers must supply their own equipment and accept full responsibility for the same.

Functions, including entertainment, must finish at the time agreed when booking, and extensions may not be possible.

Only the food and beverages supplied by the hotel may be consumed on the premises, with the exception of the wedding cake. All items left from your wedding day must be collected the day after your reception.

Preferred room rates for your guests are available on the wedding date. The client must confirm in writing, before sending out their wedding invitations, whether they will name these rooms themselves or if they are to be made available on a first-come, first-served basis to guests who contact our Reservations Team. All individual bookings are to be guaranteed by a deposit or credit card.

All unnamed bedrooms will be released four weeks prior to the wedding date. The bride and groom will be liable for any bedrooms guaranteed or named by them.
